Clarion University is a state system school. Each year, the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education's Board of Governors sets tuition rates and tuition-related fees for the 14 state system schools. This is typically completed on or around July 1. The Clarion University Council of Trustees sets fees which are used to support student activities and the operation of university facilities. All fees are payable whether or not the student plans to use these services or facilities.

Explanation of Fees

Clarion University Fees
Technology Fee:	Charged each semester to each student in order: (1) to acquire, install and maintain up-to-date and emerging technologies for the purpose of enhancing student-learning outcomes; (2) to provide equitable access to technology resources, and; (3) to ensure, ultimately, that state system graduates are competitive in the technology-sophisticated workplace.
Instructional Support Fee:	charged each semester to each student in order to upgrade instructional equipment, improve library holdings, and for other instructional purposes.
Student Support Fee:	charged each semester to Venango College students to cover the cost of student support services provided at Venango College.
Records Fee:	charged to all students during their first semester as an undergraduate and as a graduate. This fee entitles the student to free transcripts for life and covers the cost of commencement and printing of diplomas.
STEM Fee:	students in science, technology, mathematics, and health (STEM-H) related courses – in which a lab, fieldwork, or clinical experience is required.
